RE. KILLING OF INNOCENT PEOPLE IN SINDH, PAKISTAN

SHRI KAPIL VERMA (Uttar Pradesh): Madam, with your permission, I want to raise a very important human problem that concerns the national boundary and concerns the right to property and life. Madam, hundreds of people who went from India are being killed in Pakistan in Sindh, in Hyderabad and other places. Madam, all those people who have gone from India are being killed. I want international opinion to be built and pressure put on Pakistan so that those people are not killed in incidents of firing. You must have read even in this morning's papers that a lot of people have been killed as a result of instant firing over innocent people. Madam, there is also a danger of refugees coming into India from there. So, something must be done about it. The Government of India must tell us what it is doing about it and international opinion must be formed and built up so that Pakistan stops this killing.

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY (Pondicherry): Madam, there is a war threat from Pakistan. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Take your seat. I allowed one person. It is enough. It expresses the concern of the House. Please take your seat. (Interruptions).

SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY: Madam, it is very much related to the subject raised by Mr. Kapil Verma. (Interruptions). The Government is not responding to it. They are not reacting to it. The Government has not come out with a statement to this House though
